AWFUL SORRY .- A gentleman who took benville; G. H. Wheeler, Grafton. be a pleasure trip down the river the other day weut off so unexpectedly that he had no time to inform his wife. She became alarmed on account of his continued absence, and when some one told her that when last seen he was walking on the wharf, she became frantic with grief, and was just about to call in the aid of the police to search for him when he came home. The affair tended to increase their affection for sach other, however, for he was satonished to learn incidentally that she was awful sorry that she had scolded him so much of late, and that if he ever came home alive she would let him smoke in the house. But the didn't keep her word.

Tirk base ball season opens up lively in Wheeling, and promises to be more prosperous than any that has ever preceded it. The young folk of our city have always had a sort of passion for the game, and now that the nine by which we are represented is playing to such good advantage, if they are found more than ordinarily enthusiastic, it is only what might be naturally expected. The scores of the opening games show fine playing.

The delegates to the convention on their arrival in the city will go directly to the First Presbyterian Church, where they will be received by the Committee on Entertainment.

A Novel. Entertainment.—The advertisement of a "Sunday School Jug-breaking," which has appeared in our columns for several days, has been attracting a good deal of attention, and persons are asking, "What does it mean?" We learn from the General Superintendent of the English Lutheran Sunday School that about February lat each scholar and member and friend of the school who wished it received a little brown jug in which to put money to meet a payment soon due for repairs to the Sunday School rooms. These jugs are to be broken with considerable celat tonight, the money counted and placed in the treasury. Between the counts will be appropriate music, addresses, &c., making a decidedly original and unique entertainment. The interest in the affair is included. A Novel Entertainment.-The adntertainment. The interest in the affair simply remarkable, and the half thou sand scholars and teachers are all aglow to make it one of the grandest of their great efforts. Tickets are "limited" and should be bought early in the day. See the advertisement.

Good Advice.—Now is the time of year for Poeumonia, Lung Fever, &c. Every family should have a bottle of Boscher's German Strup. Don't allow for one moment that cough to take hold of your child, your family or yoursell. Communition, Asthma, Pneumonia, Croup, Hemorrhage's, and other fatal diseases may set in. Although it is true German Symur is curing thousands of these dreaded diseases, yet it is much better to have it at hand when three domes will cure you. One bottle will fast your whole family a winter and keep you safe from danger. If you are consumptive, do not rest until you have tried this romedy. Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents.
